

Support for International Conferences

U.S. delegations to major international conferences are supplied by rapid wire service with texts of special items selected from foreign radio broadcasts, and daily roundups of foreign radio comment and/or reaction to the conference. This material, compiled from broadcasts of the preceding 24 hours monitored by [] is used for briefing delegation members. Analytical studies of Communist propaganda concerning these conferences are also provided. Such services were provided the U.S. delegations at the SEATO Council meeting in Bangkok from 20-24 February 1955; the SEATO conference in Manila from 5-8 September 1954; and the Geneva Conference from 25 April to 26 July 1954.
